SPORTS AT COLUMBIA. New York Collegians Expect to Do Well in Spring Season.

If the records made by Columbia's athletic teams in 1908 are a criterion the prospects of the season just beginning are better perhaps than in any year since football headed the list of sports on Morningside Heights. In the three major sports that Columbia has left there is little question in the minds of their supporters that the Blue and White will have a more successful season than usual.

Blue and White will have a more successful when the content of the whole six events. He shot from scratch, a fact which made his work at the personner cut and Schauffler headed the string by breaking 22 out of the 25. This left a triple tie for the permanent ownership of the trophy, F. A. Hodgman, and G. W. Kuchler having scored for it on previous occasions.

"Paige-Detroit" Roadster-$800

25 H. P. Big-Stylish-Speedy-Powerful

Here it is—the peer of Roadsters! The Beau Brummel of the drive-the pacemaker in the country. The most powerful small car in the world. And the biggest value money can buy.

The "PAIGE-DETROIT" is the response -over a hundred less parts. Its simto the demand for a high-grade Roadster. It is handsome in line and finish.

It is easy in control-speedy, smooth running, durable and equal in efficiency to the most expensive machine built. In economy of operation and low cost of upkeep it surpasses them all.

The engine is equivalent to a "Six" of the four-cycle type. It is a wonderful three-cylinder, two cycle, valveless engine that delivers 25 H. P.—twice the power of the average $800 car.

Like the high-grade "Sixes" it gives a smooth, silent, continuous driving power—delightful to passengers, easy on the maplicity means durability-its power means negotiability.

The car has a clean, graceful, racy body—a 90 inch wheel base and 32 inch wheels. It is light in weight and easy on tires.

It is made by master workmen from materials of the Best Quality.

EQUIPMENT: Magneto, two side qil lamps, one rear oil lamp, horn and tool outfit. Speed 3 miles an hour, to faster than you want to go.

These specifications tell a story of quality:

MOTOR: Unit type, 3 cylinder, 2 cycle, water cooled: bore 3\frac{3}{4}\text{:} stroke, 4\text{!}; developing 25 H. P. IGNITION: Double with Magneto and battery. TRANSMISSION Sliding gear, selective, two speeds forward and reverse. DRIVE Shaft with floating rear axle. WHEELBASE 90\text{!}. TIRES 32\text{!}x3\text{!}. TREAD 56\text{!}. Weight 1,400 lbs.

Don't pay $1,000 for a Roadster until you know the "PAIGE-DETROIT." And don't pay less than $1,000 unless you buy a "PAIGE-DETROIT." Demonstration gladly given.

Cless Finish in Christmas Handicap at Jacksonville All in Vain.

JACKSONVILLS, Fla., Dec. 25.—The Christmas Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a furlong, had only four starters to-day but brought out one of the prettiest finishes of the meeting. Eyebright, the favorite, and Woolwinder finished so close that only the judges could separate them at the end. Eyebright's number was hung up, but he was afterward disqualified.

Ganz, who rode Woolwinder, made a claim of foul against Powers, saying he had caught the bridle of his horse at the sixteenth pole and stopped him. This was corroborated by Starter Brown and one of his assistants, who happened to be at that point at the time. Powers was fined $200 and set down for a week.

SOCCER IN THE SNOW.

escents and Camerons Play in Bad Weather, the Latter Winning.

Braving the weather the Crescent Athletic Club Association Football team and the eleven of the Cameron Football Club, at one time holder of the Amateur League championship, kept their scheduled engagement yesterday at Bay Ridge. They played a full game and the Camerons won, is reals to 3 all three of the goals placed to the credit of his team. He equalized for the Crescents with a shot from thirty yards out soon after Greenblatt had tailied.

Some sharp work on the part of Salter and H. G. Humphreys in the forward line enabled McCleliand to score again and place the Crescents in the lead. Before half time McKivvitt, outside right for the Camerons, made a brilliant dash down the field and outwitted the home defence.

The Camerons forged ahead in the second half through a rattling shot by Greenblatt in a mixup, but again Capt. McClelland came to the rescue, notching a point this time from a pass by Jackson at inside right. From them on the game was in the Camerons favor. Marshall, at centre, shot the next goal from a pass by J. Isaac and the latter clinched the win a few minutes later during a mixup in front of the Crescent goal. ment yesterday at Bay Ridge. They played a full game and the Camerons won, a goals to 3.

For some time after the start the going was not so bad, but when the fall of snow had attained the thickness of an inch the pigskin gathered snow so that it was difficult to handle. After a while too, the players were handleapped by their slipping and in this respect the Crescents, who were the heavier team, suffered most.

It was the third meeting of the team this season, the Crescents having won in both the earlier encounters. Yesterday the Brooklyn clubmen were short a man and did well to hold their opponents to a tie in the first thair. In the second period the first thair. In the second period the first two goals were divided, but the Camerons, who pressed vigorously, shot the last two ca which hinged the victory.

Bailey opened the scoring for the Camerons forged ahead in the second to the rescue, notching a point this time from a pass by Jackson at inside right. From then on the game was in the Camerons favor. Marshall, at centre, shot the next goal from a pass by J. Isaac and the latter of the crescent goal.

The election of officers by the Crescent was manager; J. O. P. Humphreys, assistant manager; J. O. P. Humphreys, assistant manager; H. Armstrong, H. J. Charlwood and W. F. Jackson. This was the second season with the Crescents for McClelland, elected last two can which hinged the victory.
